

Prof. Jacques Balthazart

University of Liège
Liege, Belgium

Prof. Balthazart is currently Director Emeritus of the research group in Behavioral Neurobiology at the GIGA Neurosciences, University of Liège. Prof. J. Balthazart obtained his Ph.D. in Zoological Sciences from the University of Liège in 1977. He was Adjunct Faculty at Rockefeller University in 1987-1989. His publications on ResearchGate reach the score of 7084 downloads, 14529 citations and his score on Google Scholar reaches 17355 quotations. He is Co-Editor-in-Chief of the journal Frontiers in Neuroendocrinology and member of the Editorial Board of several journals too. He is Honorary Fellow of the American Ornithologists' Union. Prof. Balthazart is an active member of multiple scientific societies including the Society for Neuroscience, Society for Behavioral Neuroendocrinology of which he has been president in 2003-2005, and Endocrine Society. He has received many prestigious awards and published his work (>380) in highly reputed journals.